Bright & Modern Two-Bedroom Apartment with Brand New En-Suite Moments from Woking Station

A particularly well-presented and bright third-floor apartment, ideally located on the fringes of Woking Town Centre just a short walk from the station and town amenities.

The accommodation features two generous double bedrooms, including a main bedroom with a brand new en-suite shower room and fitted wardrobe cupboards. The second bedroom is served by a modern family bathroom.

The open-plan living/dining room offers excellent natural light and access to a private balcony, while the contemporary fitted kitchen comes complete with integrated appliances.

Additional benefits include allocated off-street parking within a secure gated courtyard, and a resident's bike store for added convenience.

Perfectly situated just a stone's throw from a major supermarket and Woking's wide range of shopping, dining, and leisure facilities. Woking Station (National Rail) is moments away, offering a fast and direct service to London Waterloo, while excellent road links connect to the M25, making this an ideal property for commuters and investors alike.
