LOCATION

Enjoying a central position in the heart of Hindhead, walking distance of two cafe's, The Devils Punchbowl Hotel, bar and restaurant, a small parade of shops, Hindhead Commons and the National Trust's Devil's Punchbowl. Hindhead is a small historic village, with a cluster of shops and cafe's, situated between the larger towns of Farnham and Haslemere, both of which offer good high street shopping and main line rail connections to London.

Access to the A3 is easy, with motorway style connections to London, the South Coast and both principal airports. Hindhead benefits from many acres of protected countryside; The Devil's Punchbowl (being one) is a designated area of outstanding natural beauty. A selection of shops and services, including the local primary school can be found in Beacon Hill, Grayshott or Weyhill. Additionally there are a large number of private schools and preschools. Close by, there are several Golf Courses, including Hindhead Golf Course which was founded in 1904 by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Other sporting facilities include racing at Goodwood, polo at Cowdray Park, and sailing on Frensham Pond. The centre of Guildford is 15 miles away, with an excellent range of leisure, sports, entertainment and dining facilities as well as Guildford Cathedral.
