Beautifully presented throughout, the accommodation retains a wealth of character, with exposed brickwork, original beams and an attractive feature fireplace with wood-burning stove creating a warm and inviting sitting room. A separate dining room, also featuring exposed brickwork and timber beams, provides an excellent space for entertaining and enjoys direct access to the rear garden, while the fitted kitchen also opens onto the garden. The ground floor is completed by a family bathroom fitted with a bath and wall-mounted shower.

Upstairs, there are two generous double bedrooms, both benefiting from fitted wardrobes. The principal bedroom enjoys delightful open views across neighbouring fields, adding to the cottage's idyllic rural feel.

A particular highlight of the property is the beautifully established rear garden. Thoughtfully landscaped with a generous paved terrace, it provides the perfect setting for al fresco dining and entertaining before leading down to the tranquil Tillingbourne Stream. Tucked away at the end of the garden is a home office, ideal for those working from home, pursuing hobbies or simply seeking a peaceful retreat surrounded by nature.

Further benefits include double glazed windows, attractive views across open fields to the front and a wonderful blend of character features and modern-day practicality.

Situated in the centre of Gomshall, the property is within walking distance of the railway station and approximately one mile from the highly regarded village of Shere, offering a supermarket, nursery and primary schools, doctors surgery, independent shops, traditional pubs and popular restaurants. Surrounded by the outstanding natural beauty of the Surrey Hills National Landscape, Gomshall enjoys an enviable position approximately six miles from both Guildford and Dorking, making it ideal for those seeking village life without compromising on connectivity.
