This great family house offers well-proportioned and versatile accommodation, driveway parking and a particularly generous garden with plenty of space for relaxation, play and home-grown produce.

The house is approached across a level front garden, predominantly laid to lawn, with driveway parking extending along one side. The front door opens into a spacious entrance hall, where stairs rise to the first floor and a useful ground-floor shower room can be found; ideal for busy family life.

Double doors lead into an impressive reception room measuring 21'6 in width. This wonderfully sociable space provides clearly defined sitting and dining areas, with immediate views across the rear garden and direct access onto the wide paved patio. An adjoining snug offers a comfortable additional reception area, also benefiting from garden views and patio doors, while the vaulted study has both a window and rooflight, creating a bright and peaceful place to work from home.

Positioned at the front of the house, the kitchen offers a central island and a walk-in pantry, together with ample space for appliances. Adjoining, a separate utility room provides further storage and room for a washing machine/tumble dryer.

The study and utility room form part of a previous extension, while the house offers further potential to enlarge, if desired, subject to the necessary planning permissions. A substantial storage room, created from the former garage, completes the ground-floor accommodation.

Upstairs are four well-proportioned bedrooms, two of which benefit from built-in wardrobes. A spacious landing acts as a central hub connecting the four bedrooms and a modern family bathroom.
