The property is ideally suited to modern family life, with two reception rooms, a study, three bath/shower rooms and excellent practical space throughout.

The entrance hall provides access to a useful study, ideally positioned for working from home, together with a ground-floor cloakroom. The kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of wooden cabinetry and integrated appliances, with a separate utility room providing further storage and space for laundry appliances.

A separate dining room offers ample space for entertaining and has double doors opening onto the rear garden. The particularly generous sitting room is filled with natural light from windows and glazed doors on two sides, with a fireplace creating an attractive focal point and direct garden access completing the room.

Upstairs, the impressive principal bedroom benefits from a spacious en-suite bathroom with both a bath and separate shower enclosure. Bedroom two also has its own en-suite bathroom, while the three remaining bedrooms are all well-proportioned doubles, including an especially spacious third bedroom with rooflights. A separate family bathroom completes the first-floor accommodation, providing three bathrooms in total.

Outside, the property is approached via a brick-paved driveway providing off-street parking and access to the integral double garage. The enclosed rear garden extends around the side of the house and is mainly laid to lawn, with mature shrubs, established boundaries and plenty of scope for landscaping to suit individual requirements.

Knox Road forms part of the popular Queen Elizabeth Park development, conveniently positioned for local shops, green spaces and bus services into Guildford. The Royal Surrey County Hospital, University of Surrey and Surrey Research Park are all within easy reach, together with a broad selection of well-regarded state and independent schools.
