Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac and enjoying a generous plot, this attractive semi-detached home is being offered to the market for the first time in over 60 years. Lovingly cared for by the current owner throughout this time, the property offers well-proportioned accommodation, excellent outside space and exciting potential for future improvement or extension, subject to the necessary planning consents.

The accommodation comprises three bedrooms, with two particularly spacious doubles, all benefiting from built-in wardrobes. The first floor is completed by a family bathroom with separate WC.

On the ground floor, a front-aspect living room features a fireplace and opens through an archway into a separate dining room, creating a natural flow between the two reception areas. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and eye-level units, integrated oven and electric hob, together with space for further appliances.

One of the property's particular highlights is the generous rear garden, which extends to approximately 70ft at its furthest point, providing an excellent space for families and considerable scope for an extension, subject to planning permission. To the front, the property benefits from a large frontage providing ample off-street parking, in addition to a detached garage.

The location is equally appealing, with Knaphill village within easy reach, providing a range of local shops, amenities and everyday facilities. Bus links nearby offer convenient access to Woking town centre and its wider range of shopping, leisure and transport facilities. There are also numerous schools within walking distance, making this a particularly attractive proposition for families.

With its long-standing history, quiet cul-de-sac setting, substantial garden and potential to improve and extend, this is a home that offers a rare opportunity for the next owner to make their own mark.
