The property offers considerable scope for modernisation and fantastic potential for enlarging, subject to the usual planning permissions. With its attractive brick façade, distinctive 1952 date stone and practical layout, the property presents an appealing prospect for buyers looking to put their own stamp on a home.

The front door opens into an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor. To the front, the spacious living room enjoys plenty of natural light through an attractive bay window overlooking the established front garden.

To the rear, the kitchen/breakfast room offers excellent potential to create a contemporary family space. There is a functional kitchen fitted with a range of pale green units with ample worktop space and the room benefits from a wide window overlooking the garden and space for informal dining. A glazed external door provides direct access outside. An adjoining utility room offers valuable additional storage and workspace, with a separate cloakroom completing the ground-floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing leads to three bedrooms, including two well-proportioned doubles, both enjoying attractive leafy outlooks. The third bedroom provides versatility as a child's bedroom, nursery or home office. A contemporary shower room features a spacious walk-in enclosure with glazed screens, a vanity washbasin and WC, while a separate store room provides useful additional storage.

Outside, the mature rear garden is a particular highlight, offering a wonderfully green and established setting with excellent potential for further landscaping. A raised paved terrace provides an inviting spot for outdoor dining and relaxation, while the substantial detached double garage offers excellent parking, storage or workshop potential.
